

{ Online course Programme }

REGISTER HERE

CLUSTER #A CLIMATE JUSTICE VISION

- A.1 Climate justice paradigm and climate justice movements
- A.2 Human rights violations related to climate change
- A.3 Gender and climate change
- A.4 Climate Change as a driver of Migration
- A.5 States responsibilities
- A.6 Fossil fuel sector liability
- A.7 Carbon market and climate neutrality: opportunity or limit for climate action?
- A.8 Better understanding compensation mechanisms: from carbon capture and to GHG absorption

CLUSTER #B CLIMATE CHANGE BASICS

B.1 Basic science underlying climate change

- B.1.1 The earth climate system
- B.1.2 Climate balance and greenhouse gases
- B.1.3 Human influence on climate and emissions' source
- B.1.4 Future scenarios
- B.1.5 Climate change impacts

B.2 International strategies, policies and agreements

- B.2.1 International agreements history
- B.2.2 The Paris agreement
- B.2.3 The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

CLUSTER #C CURB YOUR EMISSIONS

- C.1 Running climate friendly core activities: An overview
- C.2 Food strategies and improved agriculture
- C.3 Land, Oceans and Coasts protection
- C.4 Climate benefits of health, education and gender equality actions
- C.5 Peace and climate action: a nurturing cycle
- C.6 The PDCA approach; Procuring for the future
- C.7 Measuring, monitoring and reporting on climate related impacts
- C.8 Climate and environmental mainstreaming in project writing and management.

Course promoted by

- A Sud Ecologia e Cooperazione
- Ecosistemi Foundation
- Un Ponte Per
- Iroko
- Bosque y Comunidad
- AIDGLOBAL
- Università di Cadiz

In collaborarion with associated partners:

La Sapienza University, ActionAid, AOI - Internasional Cooperation and Solidarity

Co-funded by the European Union

CLUSTER #D ENGAGE IN CHANGE

D.1 Satisfying the main environmental requirements by donors

- D.1.1 In the emergency sector
- D.1.2 In the development and cooperation sector

D.2 Getting local actors to take action on climate change

- D.2.1 Community strategies to take action on climate change – participatory approaches
- D.2.2 Engaging with local actors and communities – methods and tools